

University Hospitals Cleveland Medical Center, Department of OBGYN invites applications for a full time Clinical Psychologist position with specialization in women's health behavioral medicine. The successful applicant will provide collaborative clinical service to outpatients in the adult women's health population. Interest in working with patients experiencing perinatal mood and anxiety disorders, infertility, reproductive loss, female sexual dysfunction, and menopausal symptoms is preferred. Candidates must have clinical experience and appropriate training, with behavioral medicine fellowship training desired. Candidates must demonstrate the skills to work effectively with an interdisciplinary team. The position blends patient care, teaching, and research. License or license eligibility in Ohio required. This search is open to potential candidates at all levels of career experience and appointments will be made at an academic level commensurate with the appointee's experience. The position will have an appointment in the Department of Reproductive Biology, Case Western Reserve University School of Medicine.

University hospitals of Cleveland provides competitive salary and benefits. UHC is an Equal Opportunity employer. Women and minority candidates are encouraged to apply.

Please contact Sheryl Kingsberg, PhD, Chief, Division of Behavioral Medicine, Department of OBGYN for further information at Sheryl.Kingsberg@UHhospitals.org.